III. DISCUSSION ITEMS

A. Planning of Auburn's 124th Birthday Celebration
Laura Westergard, Executive Director of Auburn Downtown Association -- Planning for Auburn's 124th Birthday Celebration in June 2015 and review of Auburn's 123rd Birthday Celebration held June 2014.

Laura Westergard, Executive Director of Auburn Downtown Association (ADA) and Councilmember John Holman shared with the Junior Council a recap of Auburn's 123rd Birthday Celebration held in June 2014. Activities at the celebration included music, poetry, a beer garden and food vendors. Westergard and Holman asked the Junior Council to discuss what kind of youth activities they would like to see at Auburn's 124th Birthday Celebration next year. Some ideas shared were a car show, henna tattoos, ice cream bar, petting zoo, face painting, balloon animals, dance performances and an obstacle course.

Vice Chair Campbell suggested using social media such as Facebook, Instagram and Twitter to encourage youth attendance at the birthday celebration. Laura Westergard will present the Junior Council's ideas to the Auburn Downtown Association board at their next meeting.

B. Anti-Bullying Project
Continued planning of Anti-Bullying Project -- report from Junior Councilmember Olivia Thomas on discussions at Rainier Middle School.

After speaking with her peers and the Assistant Principal, Member Thomas shared that Rainier Middle School is interested in having an anti-bullying club. She will follow up with the Assistant Principal at the beginning of the school year to start the planning process. Member Hands suggested an Act of Random Kindness (ARK) program that will encourage students to anonymously give small gifts to their peers that may feel excluded or are being bullied.

IV. ADJOURNMENT

There being no further business to come before the Junior City Council, the meeting adjourned at 5:41 p.m.
