Brad,

Hi! Ok, thanks for thinking about that. No, we do not have a specific timeline in mind, but it would be good to get a new contract in place before the end of the year if we are going to move forward with something.

The bronze log is still onsite. Our crew could not figure out how to deinstall it. Do you recall how it was mounted to the concrete pad?

Thank you,

Allison

Allison,

Sounds great!

Let me do some thinking about all of this and I will work on some ideas.

Is there a timeline/deadline of any sort that we are working towards as far as replacing the sculpture?

And just confirming that the bronze log is still there.

Has that been moved to storage?

thanks,

Brad

Brad,

Hello! That's great to hear that you might be able to consider working with another material for a replacement piece. As far as budget goes, we could certainly spend the $55,000 that we received from the insurance company for the sculpture that was stolen, and possibly more depending on the design and materials needed for a piece of that scale. What type of material are you thinking of, and what would the budget need to be to create a piece of a similar scale to before?

Thank you,

Allison

Hi Allison,

I am excited that there is interest in having me do a replacement piece for the site there.

Yes I'd also be up for thinking about another material.

Do you happen to know what the budget is for the replacement as that could impact what material can be used depending on costs.

Thanks!!

Brad,

Hello again! I wanted to reach out to inquire if you would consider working in another material for a sculpture at that site? Have you ever cast in concrete, aluminum or other less desirable-to-steal material? We would really love to have a replacement artwork for this site by you. Unfortunately, after two times having the piece stolen, and other recent bronze thefts in Auburn, we do not think it is wise to replace a bronze at this location so are looking into other options.

Feel free to let me know your thoughts on that and we can schedule a phone call if needed too.

Thanks and have a great weekend!

Hello Allison,

Well this is definitely sad news for sure.

I can give you a call to discuss, but wanted to ask if the log was stolen as well?

Also, just to let you know, the mold for that deer sculpture was made many, many years ago and has been deemed non-viable and thus was destroyed.

So, that specific deer would not be able to be recast.

I have a new life-size black bear that we could replace it with.

I think it would look fantastic.

Maybe we could do a stone base and with the thicker bear paws/legs we could use some high-level anti theft materials.

Just some initial thoughts....

Error! Filename not specified.

Let me know when is a good time to talk.

thanks,

Brad

Dear Brad Rude,

Good morning! I hope this finds you well. I wanted to reach out to let you know the unfortunate news that your sculpture titled "The Long Look" was stolen again, and we were notified on March 27th. We have filed a police report and have begun the insurance claim process, but are wondering what your thoughts are for next steps.

Sadly, the artwork has been stolen from this site twice now, which makes us question whether or not it is wise to once again cast it in bronze and replace it in the same material at the same location. Our staff wondered if it would be possible to recast the sculpture in a less valuable material to go at the same site? Or if there were a way to fill the hollow inside of the sculpture with something more theft deterrent like concrete? I know that these might be stupid questions, and that the last time it was recast there was an anti-theft rod installed inside it.

Although this does seem like the perfect site for the piece given it's scenic overlook, we have concerns about replacing in-kind since this is not only the second time it has been stolen from this location but it is also th second bronze piece we have had stolen this year.

Looking forward to your thoughts.

Thank you,

Allison

Yes that is sad news and I am sorry to hear that it happened.

I will not need the base back. So if you know of another artist that could use the metal you are welcome to donate it to them.

Dear Steve Tyree,

Good morning! I hope this finds you well. I am sorry to be the bearer of bad news, but I need to share the sad news that your sculpture titled "Hawk" was stolen from Game Farm Park around December 11th, 2024. We have filed a police report, but have no leads on retrieving it.

As you know from recent experience, we have had trouble recently with bronze artworks being stolen, and given that recent track record, we have had to make the difficult decision to not replace this artwork. I will speak from my own perspective and say that it's very discouraging when the public treats artwork so disrespectfully since it's something that is truly there for the entire community to enjoy. We have loved having this beautiful artwork of yours in our collection and hope we have the chance to work with you again in the future.

If we need to reach out to you with any further information, or permission to "deaccession" this piece from our collection, I will be in touch. We do still have the base of the piece, which we will remove and put in storage. If you would like it, I am more than happy to schedule a time to meet with you.

Sincerely,

Allison
